EXCURSION STEAMER HITS ROCK; PANIC AMONG PASSENGERS

FOUR WOMEN DROWNED AND OTHERS MAY BE MISSING FROM NAZI VESSEL

By BJORD BUNKHOLDT
Associated Press Foreign Staff.
KOPERVIK, Karmoy Island, Norway, June 21.—(AP)—The Norwegian Pilot Taccogen today assumed sole responsibility for the wreck of the S. S. Dresden in which four women out of a passenger list of 1,000 German Nazis were drowned.

"I take sole responsibility for the Dresden disaster," said Taccogen. "No other explanation is possible for this unavoidable tragedy."

"The waters of the Karmoy are difficult to navigate, but I have piloted here more than 30 years and therefore have an intimate knowledge of them."

"There was a mist all day but it got lighter toward evening and therefore the mist was not the real cause."

STAVANGER, Norway, June 21.—(AP)—Survivors of a gay Nazi excursion ship which turned into tragedy when the North German Lloyd liner Dresden rammed into a rock today of sudden panic among the 1,000 merry-making passengers.

Four women were drowned in the wild haste to flee the ship, believed to be a total loss. Others may be missing.

The vessel was steaming in Hardanger Fjord along Norway's picturesque coast last night when the crash came.

Inside, the holiday crowd was

Missing Girl Is Found In Tyler; Amnesia Victim

LONGVIEW, June 21.—(AP)—Juanita Taylor, 17-year-old graduate of the Longview high school, who had been missing two days, was returned to her home on the Gladewater highway today by Tyler friends who recognized her from a broadcast description.

Friends said she appeared to be dazed, leading to the belief she might have been a victim of amnesia. She was unable to give members of her family a coherent account of her absence, how she came to her way to Tyler or where she spent the time.

NRA THREATENS REPRISALS AS CLEANERS AND DYERS DECIDE COMPLETELY ABANDON CODE

DISAPPEARANCE OF WOMAN LAWYER BEING TRACED TO PODERJAY

NEW YORK POLICE SEEKING BODY MISSING WIFE OF AUSTRIAN ROMEO

VIENNA, June 21.—(AP)—Otto Steinhauser, secretary of Vienna's international police organization, said today evidence connecting Captain Ivan Poderjay with the disappearance of Agnes Tufverson was strengthening.

"We do not yet have a confession," Steinhauser said, "and we can only accuse him of murder when the chain of circumstantial evidence is closed."

"For this we await from American news of the finding of Miss Tufverson's body."

Vienna authorities are convinced that the 43-year-old American woman lawyer is dead.

While police were confident that Poderjay was heavily involved in the mystery, they expressed belief that Susanne Fernd, the French woman with whom Poderjay was living here, had no connection with it.

A lengthy grilling of Miss Fernd failed to shed any light on Tufverson's fate.

NEW YORK, June 21.—(AP)—The hope of solving the mystery of the missing Miss Agnes Tufverson today in the graves, the cemeteries of the metropolis.

On the theory that the woman—a shrewd and successful lawyer until she married Captain Ivan Poderjay—was slain, the bureau secretly police directed an inquiry into all recent burials which may have been done under unusual circumstances.

The co-operation of neighboring authorities was enlisted in a message spread through up-state New

Addressed Voters Of Navarro County

MAURY HUGHES
Candidate for Governor

SEPARATE OIL AND GAS COMMISSION IS FAVORED BY HUGHES

DALLAS ATTORNEY, CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR, MAKES ADDRESS HERE

Making his fourth speech in Navarro county during the day, Maury Hughes, Dallas attorney, candidate for governor, injected a new issue, that of a separate oil and gas commission, into the campaign in his address delivered on the lawn of the Navarro county courthouse Wednesday night.

N. S. Crawford of Kerens, chairman of the Navarro county democratic executive committee, presided at the meeting and Norris W. Lovett introduced the speaker.

Just before the main address of the evening, Mr. Hughes was presented with a basket of flowers by Miss Martha Jo Green, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Devany Green.

Declaring that the issues of the campaign had not been unanimously selected by the candidates for the highest office in the hands of the voters, Mr. Hughes unfolded his program of the "needs in Texas" during the evening.

Under the head of law enforcement, the candidate pointed out that there had been a growing laxity in this department and proposed a state police system to replace the present ranger, highway patrol, and local enforcement

WASHINGTON, June 21.—(AP)—NRA, its code abandoned by cleaners and dyers, struck back today with threats of reprisals—removal of the Blue Eagle and "other steps."

Deputy Administrator Sol Rosenblatt gave this answer to an announcement by the code authority of the cleaning and dyeing trade that it had discarded wage and hour provisions, all that was left of the code.

Accusing Hugh S. Johnson of bad faith, the executive committee of the code authority wrote President Roosevelt a denunciation of NRA's recent action in scrapping price control and other fair trade practices of the code.

"Abandonment of price control," the authority said yesterday, "has resulted in complete demoralization of the trade in large centers."

"Already evidences of vicious racketeering practices which had been eliminated under the code when the code authority was in control, are appearing in different sections of the country, and we cannot hope to maintain stabilized conditions and eliminate the chiseling element without enforcement of this all important feature."

Therefore, said the letter, the establishments would not bind themselves to abide by the clauses designed to keep wages from falling and hours from rising beyond certain levels.

Rosenblatt, in charge of the code, countered with a statement that these provisions were still in force, that the code authority was in reality abolished by NRA's recent action.

The committee's letter, signed by Chairman N. J. Hakness of Silver Springs, Md., and nine others, complained that General Johnson had given assurances no material changes would be made in the code.

The letter came from the cleaners and dyers authority said fully 97 per cent of the 11,000 plant owners and the 175,000 to 200,000 retail outlets in the trade "are anxious, ready and willing and able to comply with the said trade practice provisions, with reasonable co-operation on the part of the govern-

PRESIDENT GREETED BY BOOMING CANNON NEW LONDON TODAY

WILL SEE HIS SON IN ANNUAL HARVARD-YALE REGATTA FRIDAY

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 21.—(AP)—Greeted with booming salutes from guns of the coast guard station and a roll of drums and flourish of bugles at the submarine base, President Roosevelt arrived here at 10:10 (EST) today for the annual Harvard-Yale regatta on the Thames tomorrow.

The President and his party, after cruising in Long Island Sound last night following the ceremonies at Yale yesterday when he received an honorary degree, came up the river on the naval yacht Sequoia and headed first for Red Top, Harvard crew quarters.

The President's son, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., pulls the number six car in the Crimson freshman boat and provided the attraction that brings the nation's chief executive here for the first time since Theodore Roosevelt, also a Harvard man, saw the regatta in 1905.

The Harvard freshmen were out in the river for a final paddle before the two mile sprint with Yale on tomorrow morning's program. Escorted by the naval patrol boat Cuyahoga and coast guard destroyers CG-172 and CG-16, the Sequoia stopped briefly off Red Top, surveyed the situation and then proceeded to anchorage at the submarine base, finish of tomorrow morning's events and half way mark for the varsity race that starts at 8:30 (Eastern Standard Time) in the evening.

HITLER TO CONFER WITH HINDENBURG; VON PAPAN SUBJECT VISIT, HOWEVER, OSTENSIBLY TO REPORT RECENT VENICE CONFERENCE

BERLIN, June 21.—(AP)—Chancellor Adolf Hitler left today for Neudeck to confer with President Paul von Hindenburg, who yesterday endorsed a vigorous criticism of the Nazi regime by Franz Von Papen, vice-chancellor.

Officially, Hitler's purpose was to report to the Reichspresident on the Venice meeting with Mussolini. It was generally assumed, however, that Von Papen's speech would be an important added subject of conversation.

Von Hindenburg is known to agree on many points with Von Papen, who represents the conservative element in the government.

The visit assumed added significance when it was announced the vice-chancellor's office that Von Papen soon would visit the president.

The spokesman emphasized that Hitler and Von Papen would not be at Neudeck simultaneously.

"They have settled their differences," the spokesman added.

Political observers said Von Papen's position following his bold criticism of Sunday, in which he scored radical experiments and "muzzling" of the press, was greatly strengthened by Von Hindenburg's brief telegram of approval.

The president had been given an advance of the address, but Chancellor Hitler had not.

Broken Neck Fatal

AUSTIN, June 21.—(AP)—D. T. Haultel, 15, who broke his neck when he dove into a shallow pool at a playground died of his injuries today.

Farmer Kills Three Children Then Ends Life

WATERLOO, N. Y., June 20.—(AP)—Apprentice deranged Claude Reynolds, Sr., 44-year-old farmer, shot and killed his three older children as they slept, set fire to his home and then killed himself today.

The bodies of the victims and suicide were recovered from the blazing building on the Yellow Tavern Road three miles southwest of here.

The dead, besides Reynolds, are: Ruth Reynolds, 15, his oldest daughter; Jane Reynolds, 11; Claude Reynolds, Jr., 4.

While the house was still blazing county officials and state troops had picked together the tragedy.

Reynolds, a son of the Rev. Charles R. Reynolds of Weedsport, for years chaplain at Auburn prison, had striven for two years against his family against drought, disease among his cattle, poor crops and illness.

SLAIN DENTIST AND WOMAN HELD

Dr. Homer L. Meyers (right) wealthy Eldorado, Illinois dentist who was found shot to death on a farm near his home. At left is Mrs. Evelyn Anderson of Woodboro, Texas, who is being held in Eldorado as the companion of Harold St. Clair, ex-convict, believed to be the slayer of Dr. Meyers. Dr. Meyers was lured from his home by the slayer who posed as a prospective buyer of a farm owned by the dentist.

5 INDICTMENTS ARE RETURNED BY GRAND JURY

OFFICIAL BODY FINALLY DISCHARGED BY JUDGE SCARBOROUGH

Five indictments were returned Wednesday afternoon by the Navarro county grand jury and the probate judge, Judge J. W. Hawkins Scarborough, district judge.

The indictments were: Cattle theft; assault with intent to murder; 1st degree theft; 1st degree burglary; 1st degree larceny.

No indictments were returned in connection with the finding of a large whisky still in the Jester community Monday afternoon by city and county officers, or the shooting scrape at Rice Wednesday morning in which Petty Sterritt received critical injuries.

The report of the grand jury revealed the investigators had been in session six days, had examined 83 witnesses and returned 49 indictments.

City and county officers were complimented for their services.

Jury Convicted Dallas Man With Whipping Baby

DALLAS, June 21.—(AP)—A jury today convicted Aude Frenslay, a laborer, on a charge of aggravated assault on his nine-month-old stepdaughter, Lovella Earl Hughes, and sentenced him to 30 days in the county jail.

Welfare officials claimed that Frenslay whipped the child, causing large bruises on her body. Neighbors testified at the trial they had seen him whip the child several times.

GOVERNMENT PLANS TO USE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION AS COURT OF FAIR PRACTICES

By J. R. BRACKETT
(Copyright, 1934, By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, June 21.—(AP)—The government today has forced a new weapon to strike at monopolistic oppression of the "little fellow" and chiseling.

By a far-reaching change in procedure, this source said, the federal trade commission is to be changed in a technical order issued to the commission.

As this order was explained, the emphasis is to be placed on the commission's judicial function. Hitherto its operations have been three-fold. It is investigated, made complaints, and then sat in judgment on its own complaints.

President Roosevelt, it is said, suggested the commission and

FEARED HEAVY LOSS OF LIFE AS RESULT OF QUAKE IN TURKEY

SERIES OF EARTHSHOCKS REPORTED FROM WIDELY SEPARATED POINTS

(By The Associated Press)
A heavy loss of life in western Turkey was feared today in the latest of a series of earthquakes which has shaken widely separated portions of the world.

The region of Smyrna was the hardest hit. Istanbul dispatches said. A cloudburst accompanied the quake, causing floods which inundated numerous villages.

Seven miners were entombed in upper Silesia last night when an earth tremor caused a cave-in. Walls of houses in the section collapsed.

An earthquake was felt yesterday in Managua, Nicaragua, while costly tremors have been reported within the past few days from India and South America.

SMYRNA, Turkey, June 21.—(AP)—The region Aflun-Karabassar in western Anatolia was shaken yesterday evening by a violent earthquake which lasted 20 seconds, followed by shocks which continued at intervals throughout the night.

Damage was heavy and there were human casualties, although the number could not be immediately determined. Shocks of considerable violence were experienced also at Dinar, Sandikli, and Bulavadin.

Many buildings, including a number of schools and government institutions were badly cracked.

Fires followed in some places and hundreds of houses were reported struck by cloudbursts in a fierce storm which followed the quake.

Authorities immediately began to take steps for relief of the homeless and other sufferers.

Flood waters have made transportation and communication difficult.

LITTLE INCREASE IN ALLOWABLE FOR OIL FIELDS AMERICA

OKLAHOMA CITY PAPER POINTS OUT SOONER PRODUCERS PENALIZED

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 21.—(AP)—The Oklahoma City Times says it has learned that the net allowable oil production for the United States for July has been estimated at 2,500,000 barrels daily, an increase of only 2,000 barrels, while about 50,000 barrels will be taken from storage.

Oklahoma has cut 22,200 barrels daily by the oil administration to a net of 589,500 barrels with 36,000 to be taken from storage. This was the largest reduction given any of the states, and was because the statistics indicate Oklahoma crude oil has been going to storage rapidly during the last four months.

It was a net 10,000 barrel increase to 1,042,100, the Times says while Kansas increases 4200 barrels to 134,100 barrels and will take 10,000 additional from storage.

At an operator's conference prior to a statewide hearing before the corporation commission today, it was agreed the state would accept the lower figures for July only, although it was indicated the state might be penalized 36,000 barrels for the next four months.

J. H. Struth, technical advisor of the petroleum administration board, said here an order would be issued in Washington later this week setting up systematic withdrawals from storage in order to lower reserves in districts where they have accumulated.

It was indicated prior to the hearing that all fields in the state would be given reduced allowables next month.

Listen, Texans; Summer to Begin At 8:48 Tonight

DALLAS, June 21.—(AP)—Summer will begin officially at 8:48 o'clock tonight, but high temperatures of that season already have struck Texas.

Today also was the longest of the year, with the sun rising at 5:18 a. m. and setting at 7:39 p. m. in the northern hemisphere.

The mercury soared above 100 degrees in the Lone Star state yesterday, several records for the year having been set in the western sectors.

Three Women Are Killed at Grade Crossing Today

BENTON, Ark., June 21.—(AP)—Three women were killed in a grade crossing accident near here today when the light delivery truck in which they were riding was struck by a Southbound Rock Island railway motor car.

The dead:

MRS. MATTIE BURTON, 50, wife of W. H. Burton, farmer.

MRS. SALLIE MURRAY, about 55, widow.

MISS CLYDE BUSICK, about 18, niece of Mrs. Murray and daughter of A. V. Busick, postmaster at Belfast, a community on the northern edge of Grant county where the three women lived.

The women were en route home from a shopping trip to Benton.

A fluid which is capable of stopping bleeding, even from major blood vessels, has been discovered by Dr. Luigi Pancaro, above, well-known physician of Sanbury, Ontario, following two years of intensive work.

TEXAS PETROLEUM COUNCIL IN PRAISE OF R. D. PARKER

URGE APPOINTMENT STATE PRORATION OFFICER TO FEDERAL PLACE

HOUSTON, June 21.—(AP)—Members of the Texas Petroleum Council meeting here today praised R. D. Parker, until Tuesday proration enforcement officer for the State railroad commission in the East Texas oil field, and urged his appointment as chief federal enforcement officer for this field.

In resigning his former position two days ago, Parker charged members of the commission with failure to co-operate with him. A short time later he warned that the commissioners signed an order dismissing him on the ground that there had been an increase in the "hot" oil run from the field.

The petroleum council, composed of oil operators, was organized to assist governmental employees in proration enforcement.

When Parker entered today's meeting, business was suspended while council members shouted greetings. Many grasped his hand.

George Hill, Jr., president of the Houston Oil company, had been speaking.

"It is not difficult to decide upon the man with the most ability, and the most availability, who should be in charge of the federal forces," Hill said. "He is one who has just come into our presence."

Nods of approval from the audience were numerous.

COURTS BRING OUT SORDID SIDE OF GREAT FAIRYLAND MOVIE CAPITAL, HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD, June 21.—(AP)—The grist of the mills in Hollywood ground out proof today of that old axiom—"all is not gold that glitters."

The dreams of big salaries, fame, headlines, fortune, acclaim, estates, flashy automobiles, fine clothes and big shot friends—all possibilities in the movies fairyland of Hollywood—may have their counterpart in less attractive realities. As witness—

June Delong, an actress, testifying before the county grand jury in a case in which the former manager of a film casting agency was indicted, said she and other girls seeking careers in Movieland had been forced to "compromise themselves to get work."

Hazel Forbes, actress and heiress to a fortune, was indicted by train while authorities looked into the delivery to her of several letters attempting to extort money from her.

In the courts which adjudicate the troubles of married couples came cases involving Telford Fair, Lucy Dornan and Marjorie De Haven Lockwood.

In another court, the Mdvani prices George and Davis, matched with a lawyer over legal fees.

In still another action a widower, Charles M. Blanchard sought to quiet title to the $30,000 estate of his former wife, a dramatic actress, who died a few weeks ago.

All this in a day in Hollywood. But misfortune has a silver lining. Mrs. Virginia Corbin, anxious over her daughter, Virginia Lee Corbin Kroll, former child actress, from whom she had not heard for seven months, located her daughter in New York, and a mother was made happy. The actress had only recently returned from Europe with her husband, Theodore Kroll, a broker.

For pure sensation, the Lelong testimony hogged the spotlight. The indicted former casting agency director, Dave Allen, was accused of violation of a morals law, Miss Delong told the grand jury that having "affairs with other men" was "about the only way you can get work" in pictures.

LACK OF FUNDS TO GET GOOD MEN CAUSE TROUBLE SAYS SMITH

RAILROAD COMMISSIONER SAYS HE BACKED PARKER FOR FULL POWERS

MEXIA, June 21.—(AP)—Lon A. Smith chairman of the Texas railroad commission, said today that the main trouble in the East Texas oil field was the commission's inability to pay sufficient salaries to get trained, technical men to aid in enforcement.

"The main trouble in East Texas is that we have not been able to pay the really trained technical men we need to cope with the situation," he said. "We can hire plenty of men at low salaries but about the time we put them through the school of experience, some big oil company comes along and hires them at more than we are able to pay."

He said he had nominated R. D. Parker, who recently resigned as the commission's chief salaries officer in East Texas, and refused to sign the order restricting him to East Texas.

The oil man meeting in Dallas yesterday, Smith said, was convinced that he was giving it to him. I was in favor of giving it to him. He fired four or five of Mr. Terrell's (C. V. Terrell, member of the commission) men out there and Mr. Terrell is sick you know. He got mad about it. Parker fired some of my men, too, but I haven't asked that they be put back.

"I don't know whether it was the right move to change him or not. We hope Mr. Stanley (Capt. E. N. Stanley) will be able to handle the situation. I am confident the situation will work itself out. It really isn't as serious as some would like to believe."

BLACK WAS CHARGED WITH ASSOCIATING WITH WHITE GIRL

BODY OF NEGRO RIDDLED AFTER BEING HANGED BY TWO HUNDRED MEN

KIRBYVILLE, June 21.—(AP)—Two hundred white men last night took Son Griggs, negro, 30, from officers and hanged him after he had been seen in company of a 17-year-old white girl.

The mob stopped the automobile of officers as they took the negro to Orange for safe-keeping. They threw a rope around his neck, dragged him over the lap of one of the officers and hanged him.

Seventeen shots struck him as he dangled in the air. The crowd cut the body down and dragged it over the country behind an automobile then dumped it, nude and mangled, near the door of a box factory commissary.

Both the negro and the white girl were jailed and when the sheriff's office was warned that a mob was going to break into the jail, officers decided to take him to Orange. The mob met the officers about seven miles from Kirbyville, forced them to drive on and threatened them with guns.

The negro had been held a day on charges of vagrancy, keeping a disorderly house and making insulting remarks to a woman. The woman was charged with vagrancy.

J. Frank Lumsden Among Graduates In Air Service

WASHINGTON, June 21.—(AP)—The war department announced today that wings and the rating of "airplane pilot" will be given 62 students who have successfully completed eight months primary flying course at Randolph Field, Texas, and the four months advance flying course at Kelly Field on June 23.

Among the students are: Texas: Theodore Melden Jr., College Station; Fliton L. McTune, Dallas; Robert Winger, College Station; J. Frank Lumsden, Corsicana; Robert L. Williamson, Houston; William H. Schwartz, Houston; Willis W. Mitchell, Longview; Mordan L. Cunningham, Nemo.

Among the graduates of the navy academy who completed the army flying course was Frank S. Fernald, Dallas, Texas.

SIX MONTHS WITH GREAT LIFE HAS HAD EFFECT UPON MYRIADS*

Business Man's Biography of Jesus Has Stimulated Thought And Character---Simplicity of the Nazarene's Career.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

Something notable has happened in the realm of journalism and religion since we began the half-year course in the study of the life of Jesus which ends today. Charles Dickens' "Life of Our Lord" has been published by many newspapers and in book form, as the outstanding press feature of the period. More money per word was paid for the manuscript than for any other work in the market. In a sensational degree this posthumous book of the great novelist has been a "best seller." Yet it is by no means the best biography of Jesus in print. In fact, it is quite sketchy and mediocre.

But it attests the tremendous truth that our hurried, hurried times are still supremely interested in religion, and in the paradoxical character who best embodies religion. The winsomeness of Jesus has increased with every passing year. Abstract theological discussion leaves the average person cold and uninterested. But Jesus he can grasp. For, as Whitlitt sang:

"Warm, sweet, tender, even yet
A present he is here."
The attractiveness of Christ is equalled only by the power of Christ. All classes of mankind everywhere are drawn to the glow of his personality, and the paradoxical character who best embodies religion. The winsomeness of Jesus has increased with every passing year. ## RELIEF CANNING PLANT NOW UNDER CONSTRUCTION HERE

MATERIALS DONATED AND PART OF RELIEF HEAD-QUARTERS BE USED

Construction is scheduled to begin Friday morning on a new relief canning plant to be installed in the rear of the building housing the relief offices, officials reported Thursday. The work will include a frame and screen-wire partition across the rear of the building, the screening of all doors and windows, and piping of water and gas to the sinks and stoves.

Officials said that approximately $50 worth of building materials had been donated by the Neece Lumber company, Whiteside Brick and Lumber company and the Cameron Lumber company. These donations made possible the establishment of the plant since the relief commission insists that the building be furnished by the community.

Canners, sealers and cans will be furnished by the commission and the plant will be operated under a capable supervisor and Miss Ruth McNabb, county demonstration agent.

Produce from the seven relief gardens in the county will be canned and conserved for issuance during the winter months. Custom canning will also be done on a toll basis, the producer supplying the vegetables only and receiving 45 per cent of the turn-out, while the relief committee will supply the cans and labor and receive 55 per cent. When meat is canned 40 per cent will be retained by the relief board, and 60 per cent will go to the producer.

Officials announce that about 260 men were being employed at present on projects in Corsicana, the State Home, McClendon Park, Rice, Union High and Currie.

Personal Mention
Wortham Residents
And Their Visitors

WORTHAM, June 21.—(Sp.)—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Downey of Tyler, who have been spending a vacation in Hot Springs, Ark., are expected here a few days of their mother, Mrs. J. H. Love.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Keeling, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Stubbs spent Sunday in Lufkin where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Keeling. They also visited a number of other East Texas towns before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harper and children of Dallas spent the week end with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. John K. Miller.

I do not know any better way of making others happy than by being so ones' self. —Sir Arthur Helps.

The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. —Duet. 33:27.

The power of going out of one's life is sleep.

And soon with me the labor will be wrought!

Then grows my heart to other hearts more tender.

Thank God! There is always a Land of Beyond.

For us who are true to the trail; A vision to seek, a beckoning peak.

A farness that never will fail.

A pride in our soul that mocks at a goal.

A manhood that irks at a bond; And try as we will, unattainable still.

SEVEN HARD-WORKING ROBBERS FAILED TO GET BANK'S SAFE

ENTIRE CITIZENSHIP CRES-CENT, OKLA., WERE HELD AT BAY EARLY TODAY

GUTHRIE, Okla., June 20.—(P)—Seven outlaws invaded the town of Crescent, near here, and held off scores of citizens for nearly an hour today while they made an unsuccessful effort to steal the safe of the Farmers and Merchants bank. Failing to obtain any loot, they drove away with a half dozen kidnapped persons, releasing all but one, Night Watchman Joe Stanfield, 46.

Stanfield was released, unharmed, three miles southwest of Crescent several hours later after a wild ride across central Oklahoma in the outlaws' automobile. He said he had been blindfolded, gagged and bound and outlaws, however, made no attempt to mistreat him. Cushing officers said he had given them a little information about the drive but informed them he had been let out on the roadside and made his way to Cushing.

Cutting telephone lines, the gunmen swept into town shortly after 2 a. m. rounded up everyone they encountered and backed a new winch-equipped truck up to the front of the bank. The plate glass window was shattered and a cable looped about the safe, containing $4,200 according to President Hugh Adams of the bank.

They swung the safe through the window to the sidewalk with a great crash. Startled citizens tumbled from their beds and ran to the scene.

Then, perching freely in the rays of a street lamp, several of the thugs labored unsuccessfully for a half hour to boost the 5,000 pound safe to the truck while a gathering crowd of 75 or 80 persons was held at bay by outlaw patrolmen armed with sawed-off shotguns.

Gave up and Left.

Finally the desperadoes gave it up as a bad job, jumped into their truck and sedan (Plymouth) with their captives and sped out of town. All the kidnapped persons except Stanfield were released at the Cimarron river bridge, 5 miles south of Crescent.

Someone in the angry crowd across the street from the bank fired a shot from a small rifle at the perishing outlaws as they tried to hoist the safe, and they replied with blasts from their shotguns. No one was hit, but awnings and windows were punctured.

By the time the thugs roared out of town, virtually the whole town knew of the invasion, possemen were formed quickly and a manhunt was on.

After seeing Stanfield as they entered town, the outlaws forced him to awaken Mrs. Clara Cunnard, telephone operator. She refused to open her door and the outlaws broke a screen and dragged her out in her pyjamas.

Seized Cafe Cook.

Then they seized Paul Smith, night cook at a cafe, tying Smith and the watchman up in the town baseball park, where they had left their truck.

Mrs. Rose Cook, who operates a tailor shop, next was kidnapped when she heard a commotion and emerged on the street, and finally two youths, "Red" Reynolds and Ralph Godfrey, were made captives. The telephone girls were left in the sedan and the other captives were used as shields to protect the safe haulers.

The thugs, who had five sawed off shotguns, an automatic rifle, and a machine gun, obtained no loot. They ignored a vault containing a quantity of change.

During the raid, one of the bandits stopped at a motor car approaching on the highway. Five motorists were halted and lined up to shield the burglars.

Mrs. Cunnard, 32, described the invasion. She watched the operations with a blanket wrapped about her.

Could Tell Something Wrong.

"I could tell something was wrong by the way he talked," she said, in relating how Stanfield asked her to open the telephone office because some men wanted to make a long distance call.

"Finally, a man pounded on the door and asked to get in. I refused. Then two men tore off a screen on the rear window and came in."

"They told me to disconnect the board, and I did. Then they threw a blanket around me and took me out to their car."

"With Stanfield, myself and Smith, who works at home, the men drove the sedan out to the ball park. There, they put tape over Smith's and Stanfield's mouths and tied their hands behind them with wire. Then they blindfolded them. They laid them down on the ground. I stayed in the car."

Taking the truck they had parked at the baseball diamond, the thugs went to the bank and worked to get the safe into the truck.

"They had guns on their shoulders, all except the men working with the winch," said the telephone operator. "They would get the safe about half way up to the bed of the truck and it would roll off, first one side and then the other."

Dr. E. E. Goodrich, who watched the operations from a nearby building, followed the gunmen and their captives out of town and brought the released persons back to Crescent.

MADGE KENT BECAME BRIDE OF GEORGE STEPHENS TURPIN IN BEAUTIFUL CHURCH CEREMONY

Miss Madge Kent, daughter of Mr. E. L. Kent of this city, was married to Mr. George Stephens Turpin, son of Mr. George Turpin, in a pretty church wedding at the First Christian church at 4:30 Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. W. H. McAttee of Shaw, Miss., officiated, assisted by the pastor, the Rev. Thomas Leno.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a navy blue net with white pique trim, and navy and white accessories. Her flowers were white roses, she carried a bouquet of white and pink ribbons.

Mrs. Floyd Deacon of Graham, Texas, a sister of the bride was matron of honor and wore a green and yellow plaid dinner gown with yellow pique jacket hat and gloves and yellow satin sandals. Her flowers were pink roses made into an arm pouquet tied with gold ribbon.

Mr. George Bell of Greenville, Miss., attended the bridegroom as best man.

Ushers who seated the guests, and lighted the altar candles prior to the entrance of the bridal party, were Alvis Harwell and Houston Kent.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Myrtle Nunn sang "O Promise Me", accompanied by Miss Viola Allen, organist, who also played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin for the processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the recessional. During the ceremony she played Traumerl. Both Miss Allen and Miss Nunn wore shoulder corsages of sweetheart rose buds tied with pink and silver ribbons.

The altar was banked with fern and white gladioli and white cathedral candles gleamed in wrought iron floor candleabra. The same color note of white and green was carried in a most artistic arrangement of ferns, gladioli and candles on the choir rail just in front of Miss Nunn, where she stood to sing.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Turpin left in their car for Galveston and New Orleans, and will make a leisurely coast line trip to Florida, after which they will be at home in Shaw, Miss.

Out of town guests here for the wedding were Mrs. Reed Farmer of Hot Springs, Ark., mother of the groom, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Stephens, and Mrs. W. D. Chatman and two children, Constance and Dale of Shaw, Miss., and Mrs. L. B. Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Tebbe of Cotulla, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Deacon, Graham; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Stroder, Fort Worth; Mrs. S. T. Montgomery, Waco; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stockton, Kerkens; and Mr. and Mrs. Estel Alton Ellison, Tyler.

Following the rehearsal at the church Monday evening, the bridal party and out-of-town guests who were here at that time, were entertained here at a lovely buffet supper by Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Edens, Jr., Mrs. Edens being a sister of the bride. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Edens and Miss Volu Kent.

The table laid in lace was centered with red rose buds in artistic arrangement, and provided over by Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Deacon.

Mere Boy Given Sentence of Ten Years In Prison

CHICAGO, June 20.—(P)—Four-teen-year-old George Rogalski, be- lieved to be the youngest person ever convicted of kidnapping, is re- signed to a ten-year term of im- prisonment.

"I expected to get punished," he said following his conviction last night for the kidnapping of Baby Dotette Gellow, two and a half years old. He thanked "everybody concerned" for their "kindness" to him, and said: "I don't know why I did those things."

"Those things" included luring the little girl with the promise of a nickel to an abandoned ice house where he stripped her of her clothing and then abandoned her. She was found many hours later, weak, but still alive. She died later in a hospital. The crime was done last April.

Calame Families Enjoyed Annual Family Reunion

WORTHAM, June 21.—(Spl.)—Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Calame and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Calame charmingly entertained with their annual family reunion and friends numbering over 200 present for the occasion this week.

The place selected was at their large lake four miles northwest of Wortham. The place lent enchantment to the occasion, teeming with sentiment of other days, being still well known as the "Finch Tanks." It seemed that nature in all of its beauty had endowed the place with a fine swimming pool and lovely spots for the anglers. Lovely massive oaks contribute their important part, which at this time were strung with electric lights, under which were enjoyed basket dinners, plenty of ice cold water, and iced lemonade.

BIG FOUR INSTALLS LATEST IN FITTING FOOTWEAR PROPERLY

The Big Four shoe store is now offering a service to its customers that only one other store in Texas and only a few of the larger stores in the North and East are offering. George F. Baum, owner, announced today. An Adrian X-ray machine which will enable a person to see the bones in his feet, and which will also let the operator take an X-ray picture of the feet, has been installed by the management.

Mr. Baum said that the machine was installed at a great expense, to give the store's customers better service, and insure them a better fit in their footwear.

The person being fitted with shoes stands on a platform, and puts his feet in an aperture. The X-ray machine is turned on, and the customer may look through an opening and see the bones in his feet, and also the outline of the shoes. The operator has two openings, one on either side of the machine, through which he may look and see each foot separately.

Mr. Baum said Volk's in Dallas is the only other store in Texas with the machine, and others are in Marshall Field's Chicago, and Sacks, New York City.

Mexican Seriously Injured In Truck Accident Today

Trinidad Gonzales, Mexican, between 28 and 30 years, is in serious condition in the P. and S. Hospital as a result of being struck or run over by a light truck on highway 75 near the Pickering Lumber company about 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. He has a crushed chest, but hospital attaches believe he will recover. Information concerning his home or occupation was not available at press hour today.

No one was found who actually saw the accident, but several reported hearing a commotion on the highway and seeing the man on the ground, just after he had been run over. It was reported that the truck did not stop, but continued at a leisurely speed north on the highway. The injured man was taken to the Hospital by a Sutherland-McCamon ambulance.

Ferguson Intimates Situation "Liable To Pop Wide Open" Soon

AUSTIN, June 20.—(AP)—Former Governor James E. Ferguson, in the presence of the Governor, said today, with reference to the Railroad Commission's "hot oil" problem in the East Texas field, that "if they tell a few more things on themselves" the situation "is liable to pop wide open."

Asked if the Governor contemplated a special session to investigate conditions in the field, the chief executive's husband replied:

"When a political volcano blows up you can't tell what will happen. Let them tell a few more things on themselves and the whole top is liable to blow off. They are right up to the border now."

Ferguson pointed out that, by the commission's own word, things have been getting worse, instead of better over there.

He referred to the commission's order of yesterday dismissing R. D. Parker, chief enforcement officer, in which the statement was made there were 100,000 barrels of hot oil being run daily from the field.

"The commission's only alibi is that Parker permitted it," Ferguson said. "It seems they have been trying to keep their political noses and heads above water, but control the situation for their political purposes. That proration has been flagrantly violated as proved by their own admission."

"Is there a likelihood of state troops being called to help enforce proration?" a reporter asked. "Instead it is possible the attorney general and railroad commission might be called out," Ferguson replied.

He said that unless the railroad commission could control production in Texas, federal administration of the conservation laws "was inevitable."

"We all believe in state's rights, but what are we going to do when a state fails to control its own affairs?" Ferguson asked.

"The railroad commission and the attorney general are supporting each other in this campaign for their respective offices, while hot oil flourishes. You will remember that the governor told Washington that the general and better get busy and work together, as the law requires them to, in stopping this hot oil."

Ferguson said that the attorney general and railroad commissioners promised the state that they could enforce proration if she gave them the enlarged powers voted in a bill by the legislature.

"The governor had some doubt about their ability to enforce the oil laws at that time and said so in her proclamation now on file in the secretary of state's office," Ferguson said.

AUSTIN, June 20.—(AP)—Lon A. Smith, chairman of the Texas railroad commission, said today Commissioner C. V. Terrell and Ernest O. Thompson did not consult him before signing an order dismissing R. D. Parker as chief enforcement officer in the East Texas field.

"I have not seen the order and have not discussed it with either of the commissioners," Smith said. "However I have been for Parker all the time."

He added that he did not sign a previous order which curtailed Parker's authority to the East Texas field.

"Texas oil men asked that Parker be put in charge of the field, and we did it," Smith asserted, "and I think he should be given a chance to do the job. However, if the oil is increased, as they say, then something must be wrong. But I don't know any of the reasons for the order, as I have not talked to the other two commissioners."

Smith returned last night from a tour through West Texas.

While Smith stayed to his office, Terrell and Thompson were in conference.

Captain E. N. Stanley, meanwhile, is in charge of the oil enforcement in East Texas.

Parker, who has been connected with the oil and gas division of the commission for years, most of the time as chief supervisor was discharged about the time he announced from Tyler that he had resigned as the commission's chief East Texas officer.

The commission's order relieving Parker from duty stated Parker had failed to enforce the commission's oil orders, Parker's resignation stated the "utter failure of all three members of the commission to co-operate in any form" caused him to quit.

Both, Parker's resignation and the commission's order, were effective immediately.

It had been reported for weeks that Parker was slated for removal. His friends had filed his name as a candidate for railroad commissioner in opposition to Lon A. Smith, incumbent chairman. Parker declined to make the campaign. Smith did not join Commissioners C. V. Terrell and Ernest O. Thompson in the order dismissing Parker.

About two and one-half months ago the commission sent Parker to East Texas as chief of enforcement. He supposedly was given a free hand to curb the production of illegal oil. Recently the commission removed him as chief of the oil and gas division and restricted his activities to East Texas.

Stanley's offices will be in Kilgore. He will continue as the chief engineer of the oil and gas division. The commission also announced appointment of Gordon Griffin as chief petroleum engineer.

Stanley Well Liked.

TYLER, June 20.—(AP)—F. W. Fisher, attorney for many independent refiners, said today that if the commission placed Capt. E. N. Stanley in complete charge of the East Texas oil field there would not be more than 25,000 barrels of excess oil a week.

Fisher expressed the opinion that Stanley had the friendship of the independent refiner and producer and said that factor

HOUSING CAMPAIGN ANNOUNCEMENT NEXT ANTICIPATED MOVE

HARRY HOPKINS IS EXPECTED TO HEAD LATEST FEDERAL MOVE

By J. R. BRACKETT

WASHINGTON, June 20.—(AP)—Three new initiatives, FHA, are about to burst upon the American scene in a big push to make good homes cheaper and more numerous.

Everybody believes the commander-in-chief of the drive will be Harry L. Hopkins, now federal relief boss. His selection as head of the federal housing administration is expected momentarily.

Here are the principal developments expected:

First, a modernization program will start within 30 days. This provides that any property-owner may borrow up to $2,000 to reconstruct his building. The money will come from a bank or other private source—not the government, except in distress cases—but the United States will guarantee 20 per cent of the loans. A campaign to acquaint lenders and borrowers with this opportunity, is part of the plan.

Second, insurance of building and loan shares becomes effective almost immediately. A percentage assessment on each building and loan association will provide the insurance fund.

Third, various divisions of the FHA will be set up. One will insure mortgages on new homes up to 80 per cent of their appraised value. The insurance fund will be subscribed by home owners as a regular portion of their payments on mortgages. The mortgages may run as long as 20 years. Another division will set up similar insurance fund for low cost dwellings, such as large apartment houses. Still another division will supervise a fund for insuring old mortgages. In this case, old mortgages will be refinanced if it represents 70 per cent of the appraised value.

Fourth, national mortgage associations will be incorporated under federal charter. Funds for them will be largely furnished by private sources, and they will deal in mortgages. They may buy a group of mortgages and then let them to investors bonded by the mortgage. Thus, officials say, funds will become available to localities which have money frozen in mortgages.

BOLL WEEVIL COMES TO AID OF ADMINISTRATION; HEAVY INFESTATION BEEN REPORTED

By FRANCIS CARPENTER

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 20.—(AP)—A little fellow that gets fat off King Cotton's larder is assuming proportions of a real threat to the South's big money crop this year.

While the experts contracted for cotton production limitation, the boll weevil evidently was planning a campaign too. Reports from various sections of the South say the infestation is the heaviest in years. So that what man would do by contract is likely to be done even more thoroughly by this insect.

Experts think a good spell of dry weather would take care of the situation. Weevils thrive in wet weather and the South in the last few days has had plenty of rain.

In South Carolina, it is reported from Dorchester that the boll weevil infestation is the worst in history.

The little fellow didn't wait in Georgia until the bolls started developing—he went right ahead and began eating the cotton tops.

The biggest cotton state of the South—Texas—reports an infestation as high as 14 per cent in the Rio Grande valley, unusually high for this time of year. However, dry weather is halting the boll weevil damage.

The Mississippi state department of agriculture reports "probably as many weevils at this time as we ever have had."

In Arkansas, the infestation is high for this time of the year but the crop otherwise is good.

Agriculture Commissioner Harry D. Wilson of Louisiana said the cotton in his state is doing fairly well, but the boll weevil is appearing in a good many places.

In Alabama, Auburn experts said the "boll weevil emergence is heavy in South Alabama but not in the north. The weevil will kill enough of the new generation to eliminate the threat of heavy damage."

Tennessee state officials said they had no reports of weevils in that state. The North Carolina commissioner of agriculture, W. A. Graham, said the condition of cotton in his state was spotty.

PRESIDENT SIGNED TWO BILLION DOLLAR DEFICIENCY BILL

SEVERAL OTHER BILLS ALSO SIGNED BEFORE ROOSEVELT LEFT FOR YALE

WASHINGTON, June 20.—(AP)—President Roosevelt signed and left behind him in Washington today the $2,000,000,000 deficiency bill, the second largest peacetime appropriation measure in the history of congress.

The White House made known that before starting on his trip to New England, Mr. Roosevelt also signed into law the communications bill setting up a new commission to regulate the telephone, telegraph and radio.

Another bill signed was that requiring the department of commerce to make public the results of its investigations into fatal airplane crashes.

These measures were among more than a score upon which he placed his signature.

The deficiency measure, among other huge appropriations for relief and public works carries a $525,000,000 drought relief fund.

The bill carries a total of $2,229,500,000, including direct outlays of $1,879,500,000 and $350,000,000 from the reconstruction corporation, of which $500,000,000 may be used for relief purposes and $250,000,000 by the FWA.

It is next in size to the $3,600,000,000 relief-public works measure passed at the special session a year ago.

The bill carries enough funds, Democratic leaders claim, to fulfill the government's relief program requirement for the next eight months.

CORSICANA, TEX., JUNE 22, 1934

DENOUNCED DE-NOUNCED

W. Kingsley Macy, New York Republican state chairman, counsels his party that it is no longer good political strategy to abuse and denounce everyone and everything "without regard to the facts or the temper of the times."

As an American first and a Republican second, he said, "I still feel that the situation is too serious, that there is too much at stake for men and women of this country for us as a party to indulge in wholesale denunciation and to ask the government be turned over to us in the midst of an honest endeavor on the part of our opponents to put an end to depression."

Members of both major political parties should take heart. A political platform built on the greatest good to the greatest number and without personalities and denunciations would attract thousands of supporters. From citizens who are completely wearied of the stump-and-saloon method of other days.

REVISING NATURE

Announcement has been made by Dr. Herrman Blumgart, of Boston, that eighteen months of experiment with total removal of the thyroid gland from patients with chronic heart disease has restored most of the patients to useful lives, although the treatment has not effected cures. The thyroids so removed are not diseased, but completely normal.

"Thus," says Dr. Blumgart, "we have what may seem to be a strange therapeutic step—the removal of a normal structure to alleviate a diseased one."

The public has long been familiar with removal by surgeons of defective teeth, shattered limbs, and so on, but this innovation appears to be an improvement upon nature. We may have to revise our ideas about the infallibility of Nature's wisdom and workings, if science keeps up these strides.

HELP FOR HOBBY-
SEEKERS

A recent interesting booklet on "The Care and Feeding of Hobby Horses" contains not only the author's own up-to-date advice but also a bibliography of 1,500 books, under 218 classifications, dealing in greater detail with many of the 700 hobbies he describes.

It is surprising that there is already such a vast literature on the subject of hobbies in a country which is only now taking up leisure in a constructive way. Those blessed citizens who have long had absorbing and delightful "outside interests," also have used rather than abused their leisure in the past have evidently tried to share their satisfaction with their fellow-men.

There have been too many of the other group—the unhappy mortals who have been too over-worked to develop hobbies, or who have considered "idleness" very nearly immoral. They are the ones for whom the increasing leisure of the machine age has become a serious problem and for whom the leisure-time planners are working so hard.

No bank failures this year. Any bank that didn't fold in the four preceding years is just immune, that's all.

Statisticians say there have been no tired business men since October, 1929.

JUST FOLKS

(Copyright, 1932, Edgar A. Guest.)

THE BAD AXE FAIR
"It's all so big and wonderful," said Billy Phelps to me
"The county fair at Bad Axe is the one I want to see."
Chicago has the marvelous things,

but when the summer's done
It's into Bad Axe we will go to have our day of fun.
Then you and I and Dr. Charles will take the kids along
To see the horses and the cows and mingle with the throng.

"We'll wander through the cattle sheds the winners to admire.
We'll chat with friendly farming folk and talk of dam and mire.

"We'll tread once more that crowded hall where women folk display
The things they've made throughout the year since we have been away."

And then we'll do the poultry show and hear the roosters crow
And live again the boyhood dreams we had so long ago.

"We'll eat hot dogs and ice cream cones and wash them down with pop.
At every loud yelped barkers stand our merry group will stop.
We'll venture every game of chance. For blankets pink and blue numbers on a wheel and should we win a few
We'll give them to the farmers' wives, and then with hearts light
We'll squander dimes upon a man to guess the children's weight.

BOOMING SCHOLARSHIP

Educators are getting to be too smart. Especially those dealing with boys of high school age. The kids don't get a chance. They are worked hard and made to like it. Just consider this diabolical plot, concocted in an Ohio prep school and put over successfully on 160 American boys.

The head of the school, who keeps tab on what the grads do when they get into college, had a statistical round-up the other day and found that this school's representatives had done unusually well. In college and after college they were taking honors for scholarship. So what did he do? He talked the matter over with the rest of the faculty, then called the boys together in the chapel, broke the news to them, and made this remarkable proposal:

When the school had gained such scholastic glory, he said, some kind of celebration seemed to be called for. Could they think of anything adequate to the occasion? They couldn't, at the moment. Well, the head master continued, how would it do if the school were to take a day off and go in a body to the adjacent metropolis and see a big league ball game?

How would it do? Those kids raised the chapel roof. So they went and saw their favorite team win, and the head master bought out the peanut and popcorn stand for them, and all the pop in sight, and they had a grand dinner at a hotel, and so home and to bed.

The very idea of putting scholarship victories on a par with athletic victories! Those deluded boys from now on will have new respect for learning.

MEN PREFERRED

There seems to be little room for controversy in the decisive verdict rendered against women radio announcers in the test conducted by two Harvard professors. Ninety-five per cent of dialers, according to these conclusions, prefer men.

The jury was composed of 40 men and 40 women chosen to represent an average of education and occupation, while the performers were five men and five women, all trained in public speaking.

The listeners voted that men talk naturally; women affectedly. The lower pitch of the masculine voice is more attractive and also more persuasive.

It is a wise male commentator who states the verdict and refrains from comment.

Quadruplets have been born to a couple in Iowa. There are grave dangers in the power of advertising, and our newspapers should soft-pedal that Canadian quintuplet stuff. They should be mindful of the ambition and competitive spirit of Uncle Sam's children.

Tourist business must be terrible in Edmonton, Alberta. They have had to dig up a sea serpent—and a very inferior one, from all accounts.

NEW STYLE DIPLOMAS

Graduates of the Colorado School of Mines receive something different in the way of diplomas this year. They are plates of silver, five by six inches, about a fourth the size of the usual diploma. They weigh 33.4 ounces apiece.

The signatures of the board of trustees and the heads of the various departments were recorded by photostat, while that of the president was inscribed with an etching pen. A special coat of lacquer will prevent the silver diplomas from tarnishing. Plush-lined leather cases hold them.

This is but one evidence of a wave of change coming over ancient academic customs. At Ohio State University "sheepskins" have been replaced, after 80 years, with small diplomas, 8 1/2 by 11 inches, in leather cases. High school diplomas in many places have been reduced to neatly engraved pocket-size certificates to be carried in leather cases in pockets.

There is probably two reasons for the changes. One is economy. The other, and more important one, is convenience. If diplomas are to be practical to the young engineer or the high school graduate seeking a job, they should be small enough to handle easily. The metal diploma for mining engineers, many of whom go to far corners of the earth, is both convenient and sentimentally appropriate.

VIGILANTES IN AUSTRIA

The news that the Austrian government has asked citizens to organize vigilante groups to protect it against bombings and outrages should not be accepted as indicating official breakdown, any more than would intervention by our state militia in labor disputes mean that local police were to be superseded. Police forces are not maintained in sufficient strength to meet abnormal emergencies such as exist in Austria today.

Austria's measures compare more closely with our American Protective League activities in World War days than with the vigilante groups of our pioneer times. The A. P. L. was an aid to law enforcing officers; the vigilantes were free lances.

More grief! There's overproduction of home runs this summer!

Money made the mare go but today the car makes the money go.

Banditry: A short life and a scary one.

RICHLAND PILOT
KILLED MONDAY
IN PLANE CRASH

Vernon T. (Mickey) McGuire, Richland airplane pilot, was killed near Ojoja, Honduras, Central America, Monday, when his plane loaded with passengers returning from the hurricane-ravaged village of Ocoapeque, crashed in a storm. McGuire's wife, who lives in Richland, was informed of her husband's death by cablegram late Monday afternoon.

The pilot was reported to be doing rescue work in the hurricane swept San Salvador, when the accident happened. One woman and three boys, all survivors of the Ocoapeque disaster, were occupants of the plane and were injured in the crash. The plane was reported to have been the property of the Transportes Aereos Centro Americanas Line, for which McGuire had worked for the past two years.

Surviving are his wife and a nine-year-old son, Mickey, Jr., mother, Mrs. L. E. Jones, Lindale, and several brothers and sisters. The body will not be returned to Richland for burial, but the funeral will be in Honduras sometime today.

McGuire was well known and popular among Corsicana pilots and flying enthusiasts, having visited and flown here on numerous occasions. He was a personal friend of "Crackers" Carlisle, who was injured in a parachute jump here several years ago. Upon hearing of Carlisle's accident he flew from Dallas and stayed with the injured man until he was discharged from the hospital.

McGuire got his first flying training and experience during the World War, and then took advanced training after the war, at Love Field, Dallas. He then went to Shreveport, La., where he was assistant manager and master mechanic of an airport there. Later for two years he was advance instructor at Winburn Field, San Antonio, in private flying school. He was private pilot for H. V. Baker, president of the Baker hotels, until August 1, 1932, when he went to Central America.

FUNERAL RITES
MONDAY AFTERNOON
FOR MRS. BEAL

Funeral rites for Mrs. A. G. Beal, 73, long-time resident of Corsicana, who died Sunday afternoon at 6 o'clock, were held from the First Methodist church Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock with burial in Oakwood cemetery. The rites at the church were conducted by Rev. T. Edgar Neal, pastor, assisted by Rev. C. S. Wright, presiding elder of the Corsicana Methodist district. Bishop Sam R. Hays, Houston, officiated at the grave.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Charles Weatherford, Corsicana; a sister, Mrs. Sam R. Hays, Houston, and a number of other relatives. Mrs. Beal had resided in Corsicana practically all of her life and always took an active interest in church and civic affairs.

Funeral services for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Campbell of Richland, who died Monday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock where interment was made. The Sutherland-McCammon Funeral Home had charge.

CATTLE PURCHASE
OFFICES BE OPENED IN NEAR FUTURE

DENVER, June 19.—(AP)—Disbursing offices to pay farmers for cattle purchased by the federal government in its drought relief program will be set up within the next few days at Kansas City and San Francisco, it was announced today at a meeting here.

The two offices will make payments in the 12 western states of California, Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, New Mexico, Utah, Nebraska, Montana, Nevada, Texas, Arizona and Oklahoma.

Dr. E. W. Sheets, drought administrator for the United States, said the government proposed to purchase approximately 5,000,000 head of cattle in the drought-stricken area for about $100,000,000. They will be slaughtered and the meat will be distributed to needy families.

In addition about $100,000,000 will be spent to purchase feed for cattle in drought areas and to move the animals to better pastures.

F. A. Warner of Washington, representative of the federal bureau of animal husbandry, said the federal government is making a survey to locate idle canning plants that may be used to can the meat for distribution. He said where plants can be found, they will be operated by the government and manned by unemployed persons.

Meetings are to be called in all drought counties and the government plan will be explained by relief directors. Then approval committees will work with representatives of the bureau of animal husbandry in selecting the animals to be purchased. Those unfit for meat will be condemned as destroyed.

The farmers will be asked to obtain releases from lien holders on mortgaged cattle. The lien holder, however, will receive a share of the sale price.

ONE ARRESTED WHEN
BIG STILL RAIDED
BY LOCAL OFFICERS

County and city officers staged a still raid nine miles west of Corsicana on a large farm at Jester and seized a 300-gallon still, 48 gallons of liquor and 3100 gallons of mash Monday afternoon. One man was arrested and another escaped by outdistancing officers in a spirited footrace through the underbrush.

The man arrested along with two others on similar charges were turned over to Henry Warren, federal prohibition operative with headquarters in Dallas, a former Corsicanan, and will be charged in federal court. It was intimated by local officers that federal charges for possession of whiskey, manufacture without a permit, possession of liquor and 3100 gallons of mash would be filed here had not been announced Tuesday morning. The Navarro county grand jury may take up the case Wednesday.

City and county officers were seeking the escapee Tuesday. The still and the mash were destroyed, the officers cutting up the still and the nine 350-gallon vats into small pieces. A quantity of the liquor was destroyed. The raiding party were Rufus Pevhouse, sheriff, and Deputies Jack Floyd and J. M. Westbrook, and City Officers Dave Seaton and Allen York.

GREATEST SPENDING
SESSION PEACETIME
HISTORY IS ENDEDGREAT AMOUNT OF WORK
DONE AND NEARLY SEVEN
BILLIONS APPROPRIATED

By CECIL B. DICKSON

WASHINGTON, June 19.

(AP)—The seventy-third (New Deal) congress which, among other things, appropriated an estimated $6,800,000,000, passed into history today.

Its finale, which came at 11:45 o'clock last night (Eastern Standard Time), was marked by a dramatic coupe by insurgents and an uproarious farewell rally by Senator Long.

The congress, besides appropriating nearly seven billion dollars—a sum without peacetime equal, probably, in the record of any congress or parliament in the history of the world—guaranteed an estimated seven billion dollars in home mortgages and farm bonds, set up a $1 billion dollar stabilization fund, passed thousands of bills, approved between six and eight thousand nominations and ratified a score of treaties.

The surprise came after party independents arose in the senate and smote opposition to the Dill-Crosser bill to set up a national board to conciliate labor and employers' dispute disagreements in the railway industry.

President Roosevelt and party leaders had wanted the bill to go over to the next congress, for they feared final action would mean a prolonged session. The insurgents, however, with such senators as Wheeler (D-Mont.) and La Follette (R-Wis.) in the forefront, kept driving ahead for action, overcoming a one-man filibuster by Senator Hastings (R-Del.) and finally winning against the opposition of administration leaders.

The administration's housing program, providing for partial government guarantees of loans for home building and repair, and other measures to set the construction ball rolling, was the last major item to go through.

Earlier the Frazier-Lemke bill permitting a virtual six-year moratorium on farm mortgages had passed the final stages of enactment. A filibuster by Senator Long (D-La.) in favor of this made the galleries roar with laughter.

The day saw final action on the huge debt relief carrying more than $1,000,000,000 for relief and other purposes. A controversial banking bill, making many changes in the banking laws, went over to the next session, thereby helping break the log jam that thwarted congress from winding up its business last Saturday.

More Action, Less Talk.
"There has been more action and less talk in this congress than in any of my recollection," Senator Robinson, democratic leader, said. He said that under the leadership of President Roosevelt it had done a "wonderful work."

The house, which had marked time most of the last few days, cut in an aura of goodwill. Representative Byrne of Tennessee, the majority leader, called it the "most momentous" congress ever. Representative Snell of New York, minority leader, said if he had to be president over by a democrat his vote was for the "General" Speaker Rainey.

The house formally voted to forego a program of jaywalking, for fear the country would think it lacked dignity. Then it went ahead and held it anyway. Representative Rainey.

Bilious Attacks

For bilious attacks due to constipation, thousands of men and women take Theodor's Black-Draught because it is purely vegetable and because it is prompt, refreshing, reliable. "I have used Black-Draught" writes Mr. T. L. Austin, of McAdenville, N. C. "There is a package of it on my mantel now. I take it for biliousness. If I did not take it, the dizziness and headache would put me out of business. It is the quickest medicine to relieve me of such ailments."

Texas Highway
Department to Spend $12,000,000

AUSTIN, June 19.—(AP)—Plans were being made today by the Texas highway department to start as soon as possible on a $12,000,000 highway construction program to be financed with aid of the federal government.

A bill making an appropriation to the respective states was signed yesterday by President Roosevelt. Texas' share of the fund was estimated at $12,000,000. A survey to determine projects most needed has been started by engineers and probably will be presented to the highway commission at an early date.

The highway commission yesterday received bids on state and federal construction aggregating $1,003,586 of which $758,885 represented state projects and $224,700 federal works. Bids were received for work in Hunt, Colorado, Val Verde, Parker, Fort Bend, Kerr, Shelby, Fannin, Bexar, Mills, McCulloch, Jeff Davis and Reeves counties.

We take this privilege of thanking our friends and neighbors for the many deeds of kindness and words of sympathy shown us during the sickness and death of our dear husband and father. May the richest blessings rest upon each and every one of our prayer.

Mrs. J. M. Livingston, Son
Warren and Family.

BIG OKLAHOMA BAND WILL SPEND FRIDAY NIGHT CORSICANA

The 125-piece Martin band, of Shawnee, Oklahoma, will arrive in Corsicana Friday evening, June 22, and spend the night at the hotel. The band is making its third annual summer tour, to Galveston, where they arrived June 16, and will stay until June 22.

The band is being sponsored by Robert Cooksey, R. M. Johnson, manager of the Mineral Plunge, and by Joel G. Trimble, local band director.

The band was sponsored in Galveston by the Galveston Boosters Association through the Boosters club. The band is traveling in several buses, and is carrying its own camping and cooking equipment and will camp on the Mineral Plunge grounds. They will leave at 6:30 Saturday morning, June 23, to complete the trip to Shawnee.

The band will give a free concert at the Mineral Plunge grounds during Friday evening, and the public is given a most cordial invitation to be present.

Large Soft-Shell Turtle Displayed By Floyd Iker

A large soft-shell turtle, weighing eight pounds, was caught near Lake Halbert at 6:45 this morning by Floyd Iker, and displayed at the Daily Sun office. The turtle, a light green in color, was 12 inches wide and 14 inches long. It was found by Iker, who was out counting his neck, which was about eight inches long.

It was picked up about half a mile north of Lake Halbert, on the road leading to the dam. Its present owner said there are several different kinds of meat in a soft-shell turtle, and each is distinguished for its color and flavor. He said it was going to eat it. Floyd's father is a pumper in the Lake Halbert pump station.

PROGRAM FURNISHED WORTHAM CLUB FROM ODD FELLOWS HOME

WORTHAM, June 21—(Spl.)—The Business Men's Civic Club held its regular meeting and luncheon at the club room Tuesday night. A peppy group of the membership, with their wives and other guests, numbering about thirty, assembled to enjoy the evening.

M. C. Strang, president, presided over the business meeting, in which matters of much interest to the citizenship were discussed, and reports made by various committees.

Chief of these being the road report, given by Mr. Van Cleave, for the committee composed of Judge Kirby, Billie Poindexter and M. C. Strang, who had just returned from Austin in the interest of this matter. The report was encouraging, and he pictured the possibility of a road running east and west through this town, that would bring trade to Wortham.

W. B. Lee reported 135 families on the relief roll in Wortham, and a waiting list of 20.

The paramount event of the evening was the entertainment by a group from the Odd Fellows Home at Corsicana. Music, songs, readings and tap dances featured the program given by the entertainers. All proved themselves well called for repeated applause, which was most graciously given to the following: Nina Thranert, Marie Parky, Jim Standley, and Mrs. Rose Harris, the matron.

The president thanked the program committee, Mesdames McCallan, W. L. Keeling and Walter Carlson, for one of the best programs during his term of office, and appointed the following committee for next meeting: Roger Seely, Floyd Cole and Ray Opie.

The next meeting of the Civic club will be July 17, due to a revival meeting in progress at time of next meeting.

Messrs Van Cleave and Gorman were new members. The visitors were Mrs. Gertie Tucker of Lubbock, Miss Rosemary Bell, Robert James Poindexter and Mrs. K. W. Speed.

Circle No. 1 of the Presbyterian women served the delicious three-course banquet, from a table made most inviting by holders of lovely flowers, white linens, china, and silver. The club enjoyed singing some new songs from their new song books and for which a fine of one penny was levied on any person failing to sing every song, that evoked much merriment and some financial aid for the club.

Joe Cream Supper at Navarro. An ice cream supper will be held at the Baptist church at Navarro Tuesday night, June 26. An invitation is extended the candidates to attend.

Church Night At First Methodist Brings Reports

At the church night services of the First Methodist church Wednesday night, Mrs. A. W. Rogers reported that the attendance in the Daily Vacation Bible School had reached 110 pupils on the third day. Mrs. Rogers took occasion to thank the twenty-five workers who had entered into the work in such a fine way and those who were furnishing automobiles to assist the children in attending the school.

Rev. T. Edgar Neal, the pastor reported that starting Monday night he would conduct a revival for the Kerns Methodist church in that city and those present voted to discontinue the church night services next Wednesday and to attend the services in Kerns in a body, setting aside that night as Corsicana night. It is planned to have a large delegation from First Church to be in Kerns for this night.

Slightly Wounded. When E. B. Mollay fired a shot gun at a chicken in his yard this morning, Johnnie Ketchum, aged 21, passing along the street, received a slight wound in the right leg.

Joe Cream Supper at Navarro. An ice cream supper will be held at the Baptist church at Navarro Tuesday night, June 26. An invitation is extended the candidates to attend.

THE EUROPEAN TYPE.

Our European Sisters. Miss Forbes sums up her impressions of the well dressed European women and how they differ from their American sisters in beauty themselves. A trip abroad, even a quick one like my last, has sometimes an unexpected value. Perhaps you learn nothing while away (actually you do but you don't find out what you have learned until later) but you come home with sharper perceptions about your own country and quite often with sharper appreciation. Actually, I learned only one new thing during April and the part of May that I spent in Europe. The English women and the French women have nothing in the way of beauty treatments that we have not got, and we have a lot of things that they haven't heard of, or more likely don't want to bother with such as feeding the glands with creams which claim to nourish them and so rejuvenate the face. I never once heard a hormone mentioned over there in connection with soap or cold cream. But what they do in for to a marvelous extent is cleansing and stimulating. A first class European facial leaves nothing in the pores that doesn't belong there. All that oil, fine cream, massage, applications of heat, more oil, and more heat can do is employed to make the skin clean before the muscles are worked with and the skin tightened with astringents. There is a thoroughness of cleansing and stimulation that a lot of our shops, which depend on the number and variety of creams only, would do well to imitate. The European women who really bother about themselves achieve a sleekness and smartness which no American woman quite reaches. Our very fashionable women so perfectly turned out they look machine made. The European woman of the same class does not, her perfection has an individuality about it. Do not, then aim at perfection in beauty!

Mrs. B.—You will be able to lose weight through any method that causes a great deal of sweating, but you must be watchful of the diet afterward, or you will take back all the weight that you had lost. One of the baths you may take at home is the one in which there is epsom salts, a pound of it to enough water to fairly cover you; and if not that much water, then keep sponging all parts not under the water. A bath of this kind is more effective if you bathe in the regular way first, as this gets all the oil or other secretions from the skin, and also opens the pores somewhat. Empty the tub and begin with the hot water for the epsom salts bath, and remain in the water for about a half hour. If you can keep up the temperature of the water, and also feel comfortable in the bath yourself. A bath of this kind is very cleansing to the skin, and also does much to rid the system of toxic conditions. If you merely wish to get rid of extra weight over the hips, you will have to do that by taking exercise for that portion of the body. Exercises will also help develop your legs and be much better for you than the rubbing you suggest, using cocoa butter. For the hips bend forward at the waistline and swing the upper part of the body around to the right, back, left and back to the first position, really describing a circle in which you will be exercising all of the muscles of the hips, abdomen and back. Reverse the direction for exercising all the different sets of muscles, and repeat each set a number of times. The movements of riding a bicycle are excellent for exercising the leg muscles.

(Tomorrow—Home Again).

DISTRICT MEETING OF LIONS HELD HERE TUESDAY EVENING

LARGE ATTENDANCE AND EXCELLENT SESSION PROGRAM CARRIED OUT

Urging more and varied worthwhile and entertaining activities as means of building up the district membership, District Governor-Elect Walter R. Humphrey, editor of the Temple Telegram, delivered the principal address at the Lions Club district meeting held here Tuesday night.

The meeting was held at the hotel Tuesday night, which was attended by between 75 and 100 club members, their wives and guests. A "Juneteenth" program preceded the address.

The next group meeting will be in Ennis Wednesday night, September 25. It was voted at the business session following the program, J. C. Welch president of the Palestine club, was elected group chairman, and Boyce Martin, active member of the Corsicana club, was chosen vice chairman. J. S. Stewart, Palestine, was elected group secretary.

Before the visitors assembled in the hotel dining room attractive young ladies pinned "negro-head" flowers on all the guests, and gave them negro snacks to eat.

With Miss Georgia Ruth Pollock, Corsicana club accompanist, playing the piano, Gabe Goldberg led in the singing of a parody on "Auld Lang Syne, and one verse of the national anthem.

The temple editor told of the state meeting in Mineral Wells, when Lion Haskell of the Standard Oil company, and the Lions club, were the guests of honor.

He reiterated that a lack of anything to do in a club sends members away disgruntled, and that the club should be a place where the members can find something to do.

SHIPWRECK

having dinner, the boat rocked violently, overturning every table in the saloon. Passengers raced to the decks. Panic reigned until the captain in a calm voice ordered lifeboats launched.

Twenty women went into the first boat. It capsized almost immediately in a rough sea. Four of the women were drowned, the others were snatched to safety. Bodies of the victims were recovered later.

In their frenzied haste to get away from what they believed to be a sinking ship scores of passengers leaped overboard and swam the short distance to shore safely.

Rescue vessels were on the scene almost immediately, called by a wireless operator who refused to desert his post until all were saved the captain had left the ship.

Among them were King Harold and S. S. Kropf, who were rescued by the lifeboats.

Martha who took off the bulk of the passengers. Many were able to walk from the Dredgen's docks to the latter vessel.

These were landed at Stavanger. Later the Dredgen was backed off the rock and was beached on Karmoy Island where remaining passengers and the crew were put ashore.

Hero of Disaster.

A young officer was singled out as the hero of the wreck of the Dredgen in which four women died and many passengers were injured.

The officer, diving boldly from the third deck of the steamship, swam to the rescue of the woman from the capsized boat, supporting the weakest until a boat came to his aid. But for his heroism, the survivors of the wreck said, the death toll would have mounted much higher.

The hardship suffered through the night by the survivors, however, did not end with the coming of the day. They made the best of the limited facilities in Stavanger and the village of Kropvik.

Most of them were sheltered in hotels and military barracks here as hospital facilities were quickly exhausted. The rest, already exhausted by their experience, were forced to walk six miles to Kropvik where they slept in a chapel.

Ice Wind Causes Suffering.

This group suffered terribly from an icy wind during the night as did many who stopped at Stavanger. Most of the survivors were thinly clad.

The German consul at Stavanger confirmed the number of dead at four, and said an untold number had been injured in the stampede about the lifeboats.

The survivors were aroused from the dinner table by the crash.

One of the survivors said: "The first thing we knew of any trouble was when we felt a jerk as though the ship had struck a rock under us."

"The water rushed into the first three tanks of the ship and then into the boiler room. All the lights went out and then the passengers realized that things were bad."

"A panic broke out. Men and women rushed to the lifeboats."

"When the ship began to lean over dangerously, the captain decided to try to run her to the shore. The first lifeboat was let down with 20 women. There was a strong northwesterly swell and the lifeboat capsized. The women screamed as they were thrown into the water."

"The officers had passengers lead their heads completely and jumped blindly overboard. It was terrible. The ship's officers ran down the decks trying to preserve order."

"I saw three passengers drowned. The officers tried to push their way many times among the screaming, terror-stricken women. The officers themselves behaved splendidly."

"Another lifeboat was lowered; this, too, was capsized."

"After what seemed a very long wait, several ships came to the rescue. Among them was a French warship."

"None of the women had ever been to sea before. They came from inland towns in Germany, and some of them had never even seen the sea."

"They were going to Norway to see the midnight sun."

The Dredgen, 14,000-ton ship of the North German Lloyd Line, sank at 7 a. m. today with only part of her bow showing above water.

NEW POLICIES ARE ANNOUNCED TODAY BY HARVARD LEADER

WOULD PROVIDE ALMOST ALL EXPENSE FOR BRIL- LIANT STUDENTS

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 21.—President James Bryant Conant of Harvard University today urged the universities of the country to stand firm by their principle "which insures the right of free inquiry and free debate."

In his address at the annual Harvard Alumni Association exercises, President Conant announced a change in Harvard's scholarship program whereby the deserving student would receive essentially his entire expense, and a slight letting up of some of the rules concerning the work of undergraduates.

"No one can be certain as to the correct answer to the questions in economics and politics which confront the country today, but to keep alive Harvard's stimulating atmosphere we must see to it that these contemporary problems are earnestly discussed," he said. "As far as possible all sides should be presented by permanent members of our staff-men of character, keenly intelligent, not propagandists but competent scholars, with radically different points of view."

President Conant said that it was not as easy as it once was for men to work their way through college.

"It is questionable whether brilliant scholars," he said "should have their energies diverted by being forced to do many tasks to increase their income. Our ideal should be to have sufficiently large scholarships for the upper ten or fifteen per cent of the class so that a really poor boy would receive essentially his entire expenses."

ment in enforcing compliance on the other 3 per cent."

Johnson Talks Some More.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 21.—(AP)—A sharp warning that the Blue Eagle "hasn't lost its appeal" was given by Hugh S. Johnson's answer today to the critics "who would hang my hide on the fence to dry."

"They are out to get NRA," he told the National Retail Credit Association last night. "And some of them think the way to get NRA is to get me."

"NRA," he continued, "is bigger than any man or set of men. Don't kid yourself, this thing is 'the goods.' Business is for it, labor is for it, the public is for it."

Against NRA, he charged are "only a jabbering, moaning clique of oppositionists."

The Blue Eagle, Johnson predicted, will "stay put" as an emblem of clean business.

Held in Son's Death

Joseph Reed, 21, of Peabody, Kas., is jailed at Wichita, charged with murdering his three-month-old son, Bruce, who died of a fractured skull. According to coroner G. C. Davis and three consulting physicians, a blunt instrument caused the fatal injury. Reed recently denied that the baby was his child.

Asked if she ever had heard of Allen involved in "affairs with other women," replied: "Oh, yes, hundreds of them." Allen claimed it was all a "diabolical plot" designed to cost him his job. Indicted with him was an actress, Gloria Marsh.

In the divorce actions, Thomas W. Daniels, stunt flier, won an annulment, charging that Ednor Fair married him to spite another man. He said they never lived together and that upon their return from an airplane elopement to Yuma, Ariz., she left him telling him their marriage was "all a big mistake," and she married him to show Frank Clark, another flier to whom she was engaged, a thing or two.

A court appointed a physician to examine Marjorie DeHaven Lockwood, daughter of the DeHavens of vaudeville fame, to ascertain whether she was too ill to appear at trial of a contested divorce suit. Her lawyer said she was too sick. Her husband's lawyer questioned the extent of the illness.

Lucy Dornine won a divorce from Jorgen Von Deltz, chemist, who gained fame some time ago by suing Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., on charges of alienating the affections of Von Deltz's first wife, Loulou, Danish writer. The suit was dropped. The second wife said the chemist made her nervous.

Municipal court ruled that the Midvian princes do not have to pay D. Chase Rich, a lawyer, $1,800 for legal services during their first trial on grand theft charges. The jury disagreed and the brothers face another retrial.

agencies. He declared also for revision of criminal prosecution procedure, stating that there were numerous loopholes and technicalities that permitted criminals to escape just punishment. He said that he was well aware of these loopholes because he had used them in private practice and knew the best methods of eliminating them.

As the final step in his enforcement campaign, Mr. Hughes advocated the adoption of the federal parole and pardon system for Texas which would take clemencies out of the realm of politics and insure justice to all.

Under his taxation plank, the Dallas attorney stated that he was for economy of operation and for the reduction of the tax burden. He asserted that he was against all new general taxes, and opposed to the voting of any bonds except those necessary for the feeding of destitute citizens. He went on record as favoring the taxation of intangible assets through a registration tax, opposed a sales tax, and pointed out that an income tax was not available because the federal government controlled that field.

Favors Reduction Auto Fees.

The candidate said that he favored the reduction of automobile license fees with $5 being the maximum for a pleasure vehicle; he also stated that he would favor the "Jim Hogg Plan" of spending only when the money is available after the state is taken out of the "red." He said that he favored ample appropriations to the state eleemosynary institutions and deplored the condition of the institutions for the mentally ill.

The Dallas attorney said that he was a friend of the schools and pointed out that as state recovery chairman he had fought for rural aid funds from the federal government; advocated at least a seven months school for each child in the state, for the payment in full of teachers' wages and for the old age retirement plan.

He said that he would finance his school program by taking money from the gasoline tax, declaring that if road building had to suffer for education that it would just have to suffer. He declared that he would favor the slashing of the salaries of some of the high priced engineers in the highway department and the giving of the money to the workmen who are underpaid.

Hughes also advocated an elective highway commission of four men so that the people could control the highway department, and receive a decent, courteous treatment when they presented petitions before that body.

Oil, Gas Commission.

The candidate then advocated a new and separate oil and gas commission entirely divorced from the railroad commission, asserting that the regulation of railways and buses would give the railroad body plenty to do. He asserted that thousands of barrels of "hot oil" could be saved for the royalty owners under a separate commission. He declared that the commission should be composed of experienced oil men representing all factions in the state, and that such a commission was necessary for the preservation of the natural resources of Texas.

Taking up the problem of intoxicating liquors, Mr. Hughes said that he was an anti-prohibitionist and had always been such, and that he was strictly in favor of local option, or the leaving of the decision to be wet or dry to each county. Charging that saloons were running wide open in many of the larger cities, he asserted that these places should be cleaned up, bonded, licensed and taxed. He advocated a ten per cent purchase tax on all liquors.

He declared that such a tax would bring five to six million dollars in taxes annually.

Favors Old Age Pension.

He also spoke in favor of an old age pension which would provide that any bona fide resident over the age of 65 who had no visible means of support would be entitled to a monthly income of $15 to $30. He pointed out that he was one of the authors of the 1932 national democratic platform which went on record favoring such a retirement plan, and he was ready to do his part in helping redeem the party pledge.

Hughes said that the money for these pensions could be secured from the funds now spent in each county for the maintenance of poorhouses and poor farms, with some income from the employers of the state.

Concluding his speech, he recounted the work done by President Franklin D. Roosevelt and had not accomplished all he had asserted that while the President set out to perform that he had made a big stride in that direction, and if he (Hughes) was elected governor he would do all in his power to assist the nation in the recovery program.

Little Effect Seen On Bank Clearings From Cotton Checks

Little effect was noted this week on the clearings of local banks following the receipt of approximately a quarter of a million dollars in cotton rental checks, but local officials stated that distribution was not yet completed and too little time had elapsed for their results to be shown.

Clearings for the week ending Wednesday showed a total of $200,000 compared with $300,000 for last week and $510,000 for the corresponding week of last year.

CASUALTIES ARE REPORTED RESULT PLAYGROUND BALL

A number of more-or-less serious casualties were reported Thursday morning as a result of the playground ball game on the high school campus Wednesday night, between two businessmen's teams. Four of the men were victims of collisions.

S. J. Miles had his right arm in a sling today and was suffering from an injured collar-bone which he received when he and Russell Purifoy ran together, both trying to catch an outfield fly in the second inning. Purifoy received several skinned places on his left arm.

Alvin (Happy) McCleary, manager of the league, was given treatment in a doctor's office for pulled ligaments in his left foot, which he received when he and Munroe Hurley collided at home base, to which McCleary was running from third base. Hurley was not injured.

A large number of the players were suffering this morning from "Charley Horses" and outstanding among them were Judd Stiff, captain of one of the teams, and Jimmie H. Pitts.

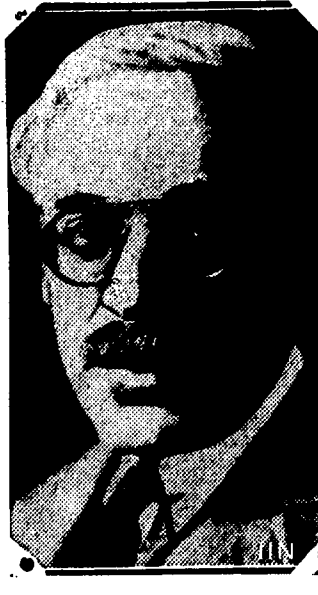

Manager McCleary reported this morning that the enthusiasm of the players was not dampened in the slightest, and that the games would continue each Wednesday night.

Re-Cementing Of Wheelock Trinity Test Surface Pipe

Workmen on the R. L. Wheelock at Cef No. 1 test near Mill-dred on Highway 22 were engaged Wednesday night in re-cementing surface pipe after it had worked loose and caused a small cave-in, and also were engaged in installing a blowout preventer. Drilling was suspended late Wednesday about 2625 feet, and was resumed again Thursday morning. Quick work is expected to be made of the distance remaining above the chalk.
